

ADULT NON-READERS CAN LEARN TO READ--RESOURCES

Research

- Perspectives, Volume 33, No. 4, Fall Edition, 2007. Adult Reading Assessment and Instruction. Quarterly publication of The International Dyslexia Association (www.interdys.org)
- National Institute for Literacy (www.nifl.gov/partnershipforreading) and ED Pubs (<http://edpubs.ed.gov/>): free publications such as:
 - Research-based Principles for Adult Basic Education Reading Instruction (Kruidenier, 2002)
 - Teaching Adults to Read (Curtis and Kruidenier, 2005)
 - Applying Research in Reading Instruction for Adults: First Steps for Teachers (McShane, 2005)

Phonemic Skills and Decoding Skills

- ABeCeDarian by Michael Bend (www.abcdrp.com)
- Reading Reflex by Carmen and Geoffrey McGuinness
- REWARDS by Archer, Gleason & Vachon, from Sopris West (<http://store.cambiumlearning.com/sopris/>)

Spelling Program

- Sequential Spelling for Adults, 1 & 2, by Don McCabe

My students have always worried about their spelling, so we are trying this program. Students like it and it seems to fit well with our decoding instruction. (www.avko.org/)

Controlled Text/Contextualized Reading Practice

- Talk of the Block (Set 1 & 2), Laubach correlated readers, City Dreams, and Challenger series from New Readers Press (www.newreaderspress.com)
- Wilson Reading System Student Readers and Stories for Older Students by Barbara Wilson (www.wilsonlanguage.com)
- Nox Press novels by Elise Leonard (www.noxpress.com)
- Pathfinders Series and Humour Series at Grass Roots Press (<http://www.grassrootsbooks.net>)

Games

- Crazy Shorts, Crazy Longs and Crazy Mores from Sound Readers (www.soundreaders.com)
- Dolch Word Bingo—may be out of print

Internet Support Groups

- ABeCeDarian at <http://health.groups.yahoo.com/group/abecedarian/>

Our Website: www.never2late2read.org. Watch the 4-part video of the model.

Questions and Suggestions?

Contact me: Jo Ann Fishburn - fishburnja@yahoo.com